Independent Auditors' Report

To the Owners and Directors of Jaguar Land Rover Slovakia s. r. o.

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Jaguar Land Rover Slovakia s. r. o. ("the Company"), which comprise the balance sheet as at 31 March 2020, the income statement for the year then ended, and notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Company as at 31 March 2020, and of its financial performance for the year then ended in accordance with the Act No. 431/2002 Coll. on Accounting as amended ("the Act on Accounting").

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the ethical requirements of the Act No. 423/2015 Coll. on statutory audit and on amendments to Act No. 431/2002 Coll. on accounting as amended ("the Act on Statutory Audit") including the Code of Ethics for an Auditor that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of the Statutory Body and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

The statutory body is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with the Act on Accounting, and for such internal control as the statutory body determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the statutory body is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the statutory body either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the statutory body.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the statutory body's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Reporting on Information in the Annual Report

The statutory body is responsible for the information in the Annual Report prepared in accordance with the Act on Accounting. Our opinion on the financial statements, mentioned above, does not cover other information in the Annual Report.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Annual Report and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the audited financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

The Annual Report of the Company was not available to us as of the date of this auditors' report.

When we obtain the Annual Report, we will consider whether it includes the disclosures required by the Act on Accounting, and, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit of the financial statements, we will express an opinion as to whether:

- the information given in the Annual Report as at 31 March 2020 is consistent with the financial statements prepared for the same financial year; and
- the Annual Report contains information according to the Act on Accounting.

In addition, we will report whether we have identified any material misstatement in the Annual Report in light of the knowledge and understanding of the Company and its environment that we have acquired during the course of the audit of the financial statements.

B. INFORMATION ON THE APPLIED PROCEDURES

1. Basis of preparation

The Financial Statements have been prepared using the going concern assumption.

The accounting policies and general accounting principles have been consistently applied by the accounting entity.

As of 31 March 2020 the Company's short-term liabilities (line numbers 122 and 136 of balance sheet) exceed its current assets (line numbers 34, 53 and 71 balance sheet) by 478 352 942 Eur.

The company covers and controls the situation as follows:

Management of the Company has received the letter of support from the parent company which approves the financial support to the effect that the parent company will provide financial and other support to Jaguar Land Rover Slovakia s.r.o., to allow it to pay outstanding obligations and continue its business for at least one year after the end of the financial year.

The World Health Organization declared the coronavirus outbreak a pandemic on March 11, 2020, and the Slovak government declared a state of emergency on 16 March 2020. Responding to the potentially serious threat the COVID – 19 presents to public health, the Slovak government authorities have taken measures to contain the outbreak, including introducing restrictions on the cross-borders movement of people, entry restrictions on foreign visitors and the 'lock-down' of certain industries, pending further developments. In particular, airlines and railways suspended transport of people, schools, universities, restaurants, cinemas, theaters and museums and sport facilities, retailers excluding food retailers, grocery stores and pharmacies were closed. In addition, major manufacturers in the automotive industry decided to shut-down their operations in both Slovakia and other European countries. Some businesses in Slovakia have also instructed employees to remain at home and have scaled down or temporarily suspended business operations.

The wider economic impacts of these events include:

- disruption to business operations and economic activity in Slovakia, with a cascading impact on both upstream and downstream supply chains;
- significant disruption to businesses in certain sectors, both within Slovakia and in markets with high dependence on a foreign supply chain as well as export-oriented businesses with high reliance on foreign markets. The affected sectors include trade and transportation, travel and tourism, entertainment, manufacturing, construction, retail, insurance, education and the financial sector;
- significant decrease in demand for non-essential goods and services;
- increase in economic uncertainty, reflected in more volatile asset prices and currency exchange rates.

The Company operates in automotive sector, which has been significantly impacted by the COVID – 19. The production of the Company has been stopped from 20 March to 11 May 2020. Production currently continues as budgeted. Based on the publicly available information at the date these financial statements were authorized for issue, management considered potential development of the outbreak and its expected impact on the entity and economic environment in which the entity operates, including the measures already taken by the Slovak government and governments in other countries where the entity's major business partners and customers are located.

In order to keep the operation and liquidity of the Company, management has already initiated actions aimed at mitigating the risks, which notably include:

- implementation of work from home program on a rotational basis for a significant group of administrative employees as well as employees in sales and procurement departments;
- employees in production department have been trained to adhere to very strict precautionary standards including social distancing;
- arrangements with alternative transportation companies to ensure uninterrupted distribution of products;
- adjustment to the scale of the Company's operations to respond to the possible decrease in demand for the premium products offered by the entity.

In management's view, the above factors support the assertion that the Company will have sufficient resources to continue for a period of at least 12 months from the reporting date. Management concluded that the range of possible outcomes considered at arriving at this judgment does not give rise to material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern.

2. Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of the Financial Statements requires that the Company management make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of the accounting policies and accounting principles and the amounts of assets,

IČO:			4	8	3	0	2	3	9	2
DIČ:	2	1	2	0	1	2	5	3	8	1

liabilities, income, and expenses. These estimates and related assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for assessing the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Therefore, actual results may differ from these estimates.

These estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are not recognized retrospectively, but instead in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgments

In connection with the application of accounting policies and accounting principles of the Company no such judgments are required that would have a material impact on the amounts presented in the Financial Statements.

Assumptions and estimation uncertainties

The Company did not identify such assumptions and estimation uncertainties that would have a significant risk in resulting in a material adjustment in the future accounting period.

3. Non-current intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

Purchased non-current assets are valued at their acquisition cost, which consists of the price at which an asset has been acquired plus costs related to the acquisition (customs duty, transport, assembling costs, insurance etc.) less credit notes, early payment discounts, rebates, price discounts, bonuses, etc.

The acquisition cost of non-current assets does not include interest on loans, which arose before the non-current assets were put into use.

Self-constructed non-current assets are valued at their conversion cost. Conversion cost includes all direct costs incurred during production or other activities and indirect costs related to production or other activities.

Research costs are not capitalized; they are expensed in the accounting periods in which they are incurred. Non-current intangible assets arising from development or under development should be capitalized if the following can be demonstrated:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale;
- the intention to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it;
- the accounting entity's ability to use or sell the intangible asset;
- how the intangible asset will generate future economic benefits and the existence of a market for the output of the non-current intangible asset or the non-current intangible asset itself, or, if it is to be used internally, the usefulness of the intangible asset;
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset;
- the ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

Development costs should be capitalized if they do not exceed the amount that is likely to be recovered from related future economic benefits, after deducting further development costs, selling and administrative costs directly incurred in the marketing or processes. Capitalized development costs should be amortized for a maximum of five years. If the criteria for capitalization of development costs are not demonstrated, the costs should be recognized as an expense in the accounting periods in which they were incurred.

Amortization of non-current intangible assets is based on the expected useful lives of the assets and their expected wear and tear.

Amortization commences on the day on which the non-current asset was put into use. Low-value non-current intangible assets with an acquisition cost (or conversion cost) of EUR 2 400 or less are considered an expense and recorded in account 518 – Other services.

Estimated useful lives, amortization methods, and amortization rates are shown in the table below:

	Estimated useful life in years	Amortization method	Annual rate of amortization in %
Software	8	straight-line	12.5
Low-value non-current intangible assets	diverse	one-off amortization	100

Amortization methods, useful lives, and carrying values are reviewed as of each balance sheet date and adjusted if appropriate.

IČO:			4	8	3	0	2	3	9	2
DIČ:	2	1	2	0	1	2	5	3	8	1

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is based on the expected useful lives of the assets and their expected wear and tear.

Depreciation commences on the first day on which the non-current asset was put into use. Low-value non-current tangible assets with an acquisition cost (or conversion cost) of EUR 1 700 or less are considered inventory and expensed when issued for consumption.

Land is not depreciated.

Estimated useful lives, depreciation methods, and depreciation rates are shown in the table below:

	Estimated useful life in years	Depreciation method	Annual rate of depreciation in %
Structures	5 to 30	straight-line	3.3 to 20
Individual movable assets and sets of movable assets	5 to 15	straight-line	6.7 to 15
Low-value non-current tangible assets	diverse	one-off depreciation	100

Depreciation methods, useful lives, and carrying values are reviewed as of each balance sheet date and adjusted if appropriate.

Impairment review

Value adjustments are created based on the prudence principle if it is justified to assume that the value of an asset has decreased compared to its carrying value. A value adjustment is recognized in the amount of the justified estimate of the impairment of the asset compared to its carrying value.

Factors that are considered important for a review of asset impairment include:

- technological advances;
- significant underperformance relative to historical or projected future operating results;
- significant changes in the manner of use of the Company assets or an overall change in the Company strategy;
- product obsolescence.

If the Company determines that, based on the existence of one or several asset impairment indicators, it can be assumed that the value of an asset has decreased compared to its carrying value, it calculates the asset impairment on the basis of estimates of projected net discounted cash flows that are expected from the asset, including its possible sale. The estimated impairment could prove insufficient if the analysis overestimated cash flows or if conditions change in the future.

4. Inventory

Inventory is valued at the lower of the following: its acquisition cost (purchased inventory) or conversion cost (own work capitalized), or its net realizable value.

Acquisition cost includes the price at which inventory has been acquired plus costs related to the acquisition (customs duty, transport, insurance, commissions, etc.) less credit notes, early payment discounts, rebates, price discounts, bonuses, etc. Interest on loans is not capitalized.

Disposal of inventory is recorded in a manner where the first price used for the costing of an increase in the relevant type of asset is used as the first price for the cost of disposal of this asset (FIFO method).

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price of inventory less the estimated costs of its completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Inventory is written down for any impairment of value.

5. Receivables

Receivables are initially measured at their nominal value; assigned receivables and receivables acquired via a contribution to share capital are valued at their acquisition cost, including costs related to the acquisition. The valuation of receivables is reduced by doubtful and bad debts.

Regarding long-term loans and non-current receivables, if the remaining maturity of a receivable or a loan exceeds one year, the value of this receivable or loan is adjusted by creating a value adjustment, which represents the difference between the nominal value and the present value of the receivable. The present value of a receivable is calculated as the sum of the products of future cash receipts and the relevant discount factors.

6. Financial accounts

Financial accounts are comprised of bank account balances and are valued at their nominal value. A value adjustment is created for any impairment.

7. Prepaid expenses and accrued income

Prepaid expenses and accrued income are presented in accordance with the matching principle in terms of substance and time.

8. Asset impairment and value adjustments

Value adjustments are created based on the prudence principle if it is justified to assume that the value of an asset has decreased compared to its carrying value. The value adjustment is accounted for in the amount of the justified estimate of the impairment of the asset compared to its carrying value. Value adjustments are reversed or their amount is changed if the assumption of impairment changes.

Impairment of non-current assets and inventory

As of each balance sheet date, the carrying value of the Company's assets other than a deferred tax asset is reviewed to determine whether there are any indicators that assets may be impaired. If such indicators exist, the expected future economic benefits from the relevant asset are estimated.

Value adjustments presented in previous periods are reassessed as of each balance sheet date to determine whether any indicators exist that the asset impairment assumption has changed or ceased to exist. A value adjustment is reversed if the assumptions used for determining the expected economic benefits from the asset have changed. A value adjustment is only reversed to the extent that the carrying value of the asset does not exceed the carrying value that would have been determined, net of amortization and depreciation, if the value adjustment had not been presented.

9. Liabilities

Liabilities are initially measured at their nominal value. Assumed liabilities are valued at their acquisition cost. If reconciliation procedures reveal that the actual amount of liabilities differs from the amount recorded in the accounting books, the actual amount is used to value these liabilities in the accounting books and financial statements.

10. Provisions

A provision is a liability representing the Company's existing obligation arising from past events, which is likely to reduce its economic benefits in the future. Provisions are liabilities of uncertain timing or amount and are valued on the basis of an estimate whose amount is necessary to fulfill the existing obligation as of the balance sheet date. Creation of a provision is recorded in the relevant expense or asset account to which the liability is attributable. The use of the provision is debited to the relevant account of provisions with a corresponding credit entry in the relevant liability account. Reversal of an unusable provision or part thereof is accounted for by means of an accounting entry in reverse to the creation of the provision.

Creation of a provision for bonuses, rebates, discounts, and the repayment of the purchase price in the event of a complaint is recorded as a reduction in the originally earned income with a corresponding credit entry in the account of provisions.

Unbilled supplies of assets

Provisions for unbilled supplies of assets are recorded with no impact on net profit/loss and are valued as the estimated amount of the liability.

11. Employee benefits

Salaries, wages, contributions to pension and insurance funds, paid annual leave and paid sick leave, bonuses, and other benefits in kind (for example, health care) are recorded in the accounting period to which they correspond in terms of substance and time.

12. Deferred taxes

Deferred taxes (deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities) relate to the following:

- temporary differences between the carrying value of assets and the carrying value of liabilities presented in the Balance Sheet and their tax base;
- tax losses which are possible to carry forward to future periods, being understood as the possibility of deducting these tax losses from the tax base in the future; and
- unused tax deductions and other tax claims which are possible to carry forward to future periods.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are not recognized in the following cases:

- temporary differences upon initial recognition of an asset or liability in the accounting books if this accounting transaction has no impact on profit/loss or the tax base at the time of initial recognition and, at the same time, does not involve a business combination (i.e., it is not an accounting transaction arising for the buyer in the event of the purchase of a business or part thereof, the recipient of a contribution of a business or part thereof, or the successor accounting entity in the event of a merger, amalgamation into a separate accounting entity or demerger);

IČO:			4	8	3	0	2	3	9	2

- temporary differences related to investments in subsidiaries, jointly controlled accounting entities, and associated accounting entities to the extent that the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future;
- temporary differences upon initial recognition of goodwill or negative goodwill.

A deferred tax asset related to deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, and unused tax deductions and other tax claims is only recognized if it is probable that a taxable profit will be available against which these amounts can be utilized. A deferred tax asset is reviewed as of each balance sheet date and reduced by the amount in which it is not probable that a taxable profit will be attained. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to the temporary differences when they reverse.

A deferred tax asset and a deferred tax liability are presented separately in the Balance Sheet. If they relate to deferred income tax with respect to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority, it is possible to only present the final balance of account 481 – Deferred tax liability and deferred tax asset.

13. Accrued expenses and deferred income

Accrued expenses and deferred income are presented in accordance with the matching principle in terms of substance and time.

14. Subsidies from the state budget

An entitlement to a subsidy from the state budget is accounted for once it is virtually certain that the entity will comply with all the conditions attached to the subsidy and that the subsidy will be received.

Subsidies for acquisition of non-current intangible assets and property, plant and equipment are initially recorded as deferred income and are released into the Income Statement; this corresponds in terms of time and substance to the recording of amortization/depreciation of these non-current assets.

Subsidies for expenses as compensation for specific expenses related to the activities of the Company are initially recorded as deferred income and are released into the Income Statement as operating income; this corresponds in terms of time and substance to the expenses incurred for the relevant purpose.

Based on Investment Agreement among Jaguar Land Rover Limited, the Slovak Republic, the City of Nitra and the Company of 11 December 2015, the Company is entitled to receive a subsidy in the amount of up to EUR 129,812,750 for the acquisition of fixed assets. The subsidy was granted on the condition that the Company meets several conditions related predominantly to total amount of eligible capital spend and total number of newly created jobs.

The Company received subsidy in amount of 65,419,635 EUR during the financial year ending 31 March 2020.

15. Leasing (Company as the lessee)

Financial leasing. Financial leasing is the acquisition of property, plant and equipment on the basis of a lease agreement with an agreed right to purchase the leased asset for agreed payments during the agreed period of lease. Assets leased through financial leasing are recognized and depreciated by the lessee, not by the owner.

The agreed payments include the purchase price for which the ownership title to the leased asset is transferred from the lessor to the lessee at the end of the agreed period of financial leasing of the asset.

The agreed period of lease is at least 60% of the depreciation period according to tax regulations. In the instance of lease of land, the period of lease is at least 60% of the depreciation period of the tangible asset included in tax depreciation group 5 or 6 (buildings and structures, the depreciation period for tax purposes is 20 and 40 years, respectively).

The asset received by the lessee is recorded in the accounting books of the lessee on the date when the asset is received, namely by means of a debit entry in the relevant asset account with a corresponding credit entry in account 474 – Liabilities related to leasing in the amount of the agreed payments less unrealized financial expenses.

Lease payment is allocated between the repayment of principal and financial expenses calculated using the effective interest rate method. Financial expenses are debited to account 562 – Interest.

Operating lease. Assets leased through operating leases are presented by the owner, not by the lessee. Assets leased in the form of operating lease are recorded against expenses on a continuous basis during the duration of the lease agreement.

16. Foreign currency

Assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated to the euro currency as of the date of the accounting transaction according to the foreign exchange reference rate determined and announced by the European Central Bank or the National Bank of Slovakia on the date preceding the date of the accounting transaction (hereafter referred to as the "reference rate").

Advance payments received and advance payments made in foreign currencies via a bank account maintained in this foreign currency are translated to the euro currency according to the foreign exchange reference rate determined and announced by the European Central Bank or the National Bank of Slovakia on the date preceding the date of the accounting transaction.

Advance payments received and advance payments made in foreign currencies via a bank account maintained in euros are translated to the euro currency according to the exchange rate at which these assets were purchased or sold.

They are not retranslated as of the balance sheet date.

Assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency (except for advance payments received and advance payments made) are translated to the euro currency as of the balance sheet date according to the foreign exchange reference rate determined and announced by the European Central Bank or the National Bank of Slovakia on the balance sheet date and are recorded with an impact on net profit/loss.

17. Revenue

Revenue from the sale of services is recognized in the accounting period in which the services were provided.

Interest income is recorded evenly in the accounting periods to which it relates in terms of substance and time.

18. Comparative information

If figures for the preceding accounting period in the individual sections of the Financial Statements are not comparable owing to a change in the accounting policies and accounting principles, an explanation of the incomparable figures is provided in the Notes to the Financial Statements.

19. Correction of prior periods errors

If the Company identifies a material error concerning previous accounting periods during the current accounting period, it corrects this error in accounts 428 - Retained earnings from previous years and 429 - Accumulated losses from previous years, i.e., with no impact on net profit/loss of the current accounting period. Corrections of immaterial errors of previous accounting periods are recorded in the current accounting period in the relevant expense or income account.

In period ending 31 March 2020, the Company did not account for any corrections of material errors of past periods.

Cash

Cash is defined as cash on hand, equivalents of cash on hand, cash in current accounts in banks or branches of foreign banks, overdraft facility, and part of the balance of the cash in transit account tied to the transfer between the current account and petty cash or between two bank accounts.

Cash equivalents

Cash equivalents are defined as current financial assets that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash, which, as of the balance sheet date, do not entail the risk that their value will change considerably during the next three months, for example, term deposits in bank accounts with a maximum of a three-month notice, liquid securities held for trading, and priority shares acquired by the accounting entity, which are due within three months of the balance sheet date.
